Fasting Regulations – 2014

Abstinence
The law of abstinence forbids the use of meat or meat by-products, permitting the use of eggs and dairy products. Abstinence is to be observed on all Wednesdays and Fridays during the Holy Season of the Great Fast and on Holy Saturday.

Strict Abstinence
The law of strict abstinence (fast) forbids the use of meat, eggs and dairy products or any of their by-products. All of the adult faithful of the Eparchy who receive Holy Communion are obliged to observe Strict Abstinence. Those with valid medical reasons; pregnant or nursing mothers are not bound to fast. Strict Fast and Abstinence is to be observed on the First Day of the Great Fast, Monday, March 3rd and on Great and Holy Friday, April 18th.

Dispensation
Pastors and administrators may, for a just cause, grant to the individual faithful and to individual families, dispensations or commutations of abstinence and strict abstinence into other pious practices.

Liturgical Directives

Presanctified Liturgy
The Liturgies of St. John Chrysostom or St. Basil the Great are not to be celebrated on the weekdays of Great Lent – not even for funerals. In compliance with the liturgical prescriptions of the Byzantine Catholic Church pastors and administrators should celebrate the Divine Liturgy of the Presanctified Gifts during the Great Fast, that is, on Wednesdays and Fridays, if possible, and at least one of the first three days of Great and Holy Week. A stipend may be accepted for this Divine Liturgy and it is to be the only Divine Liturgy celebrated on that particular day.
Great Fast Sunday Afternoon Vespers
The number of people who have returned to the Church for the Vespers has been most gratifying. The Great Fast is a time for all of us to spend more time in personal and community prayer. To help us to accomplish this goal, in keeping with our Byzantine Catholic Tradition, St. Athanasius the Great Parish will be celebrating Vespers on Sunday Afternoons during the Great Fast. We are celebrating this Liturgy 15 minutes after the close of our Lenten Luncheon and our Eastern Christian Formation Adult Enrichment Class, usually around 1:15 PM. Please join us for this special time of prayer, and also for the Akathist [Wednesdays at 7 PM] and the Liturgy of the Pre-Sanctified Gifts [Friday at 7 PM].

It is time to order your Pascha and Pierogies [Pyrohi or Veranyky]
It is NOT too early to start ordering your Pierogies for each week during the Great Fast. Please call John Danovich at the Parish Office at 317-632-4157 to find out which varieties will be available and to place your order. YOUR HELP IS NEEDED TO MAKE PIEROGIES AND TO PREPARE OTHER BAKED GOODS, SO PLEASE ALSO CALL JOHN TO VOLUNTEER. You may also call the Parish Office to order your Paschas now for your Paschal Baskets!

Please let all of your friends, neighbors and even your enemies know about what is cooking at St. Athanasius the Great Byzantine Catholic Church.

FATHER’S LITURGY QUESTION CORNER: Father, when we are praying for our loved ones we sing “Eternal Memory!” Shouldn’t we sing “Eternal memories” since we all have more than one “Memory” of the departed?

This would be the case, if the hymn was intended to convey our memories of the deceased, but it is not! Contrary to this common understanding of it, the hymn is a supplication that God would remember the dead, for in the Bible it is God’s “eternal memory” which keeps man alive.

Sheol [in Hebrew] or Hades [in Greek] or the Pit, the biblical realm of the dead is also called Abaddon. This is the condition of forsakeness and forgottenness by God. It is the situation of non-life since in such a condition no one can praise the Lord; and the praise of the Lord is the only content and purpose of man’s life; it is the very reason for his existence. Thus, this most famous and final of the Orthodox funeral hymns is the prayer that the departed be eternally alive in the “eternal rest” of the “eternal memory” of God—all of which is made possible and actual by the resurrection of Jesus Christ which is the destruction of the Pit of Death by the splendor of Divine Righteousness and Life (see Ps 88; Hos 13:14; 1 Cor. 15; Eph 4:9; Phil 2:5-11; 1 Pet 3).

Thank you for your question!

Father, what is the Melkite Greek Catholic Church?

Briefly, the Melkite Greek Catholic Church is the Byzantine Catholic Church that was originally made up of Arab Byzantine Catholics. Like our own Church it now serves people of every ethnic and racial background. Its head is His Holiness Gregory III Laham, Patriarch of Antioch and all of the East, of Alexandria and Jerusalem. The Patriarch alternates his residence between Damascus, Syria and Beirut, Lebanon. He is assisted by Patriarchal Vicars, who are Archbishops residing in Damascus, Cairo and Jerusalem. They have been seriously victimized by Islamist terrorists in Syria, Egypt, and Lebanon. We should keep them in prayer.
Father, What is the Catholic Church's official position on Freemasonry? Are Catholics free to become Freemasons?

Freemasonry is incompatible with the Catholic Faith, indeed the Christian Faith itself. Freemasonry teaches a naturalistic religion that espouses religious indifferentism, the position that a person can be equally pleasing to God while remaining in any religion or in none at all.

Masonry is a parallel religion to Christianity. The New Catholic Encyclopedia states, "Freemasonry displays all the elements of religion, and as such it becomes a rival to the religion of the Gospel. It includes temples and altars, prayers, a moral code, worship, vestments, feast days, the promise of reward and punishment in the afterlife, a hierarchy, and initiative and burial rites" (vol. 6, p. 137).

Masonry is also a secret society. Its initiates subscribe to secret blood oaths that are contrary to Christian morals. The prospective Mason swears that if he ever reveals the secrets of Masonry—secrets which are trivial and already well-known—he wills to be subject to self-mutilation or to gruesome execution. (Most North American Masons, admittedly, never would dream of carrying out these punishments on themselves or on an errant member. But this was not always the case historically, nor is it the case in Masonic societies in Latin America or Europe.)

Historically, one of Masonry's primary objectives has been the destruction of the Catholic Church; this is especially true of Freemasonry as it has existed in certain European and Latin American countries. In the United States, Freemasonry is often little more than a social club, but it still espouses a naturalistic religion that contradicts orthodox Christianity. (Those interested in joining a men's club should consider the Knights of Columbus instead.)

The Church has imposed the penalty of excommunication on Catholics who become Freemasons. The penalty of excommunication for joining the Masonic Lodge was explicit in the 1917 code of canon law (canon 2335), it is implicit in the 1983 Latin code (canon 1374), as it also appears in the Code of Canons of the Eastern Churches (canon 1448.2) which states: One who joins an organization which plots against the Church, is to be punished with an appropriate penalty.
Because the revised codes of canon law are not explicit on this point, some drew the mistaken conclusion that the Church's prohibition of Freemasonry had been dropped. As a result of this confusion, shortly before the 1983 code was promulgated, the Sacred Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith issued a statement indicating that the penalty was still in force. That means any Catholic who joins the Freemasons is in the state of deadly sin, and is excluded from receiving the Eucharist.

The history of Freemasonry is filled with numerous instances of the Lodge attempting to destroy orthodox Christianity, especially the Orthodox [in Russia] and Catholic Churches. It was the Freemasons, who having gained control of the government of Mexico in the 1920’s, set about destroying the religious freedom of Catholics. They closed, desecrated and destroyed numerous Catholic Churches. The Masonic controlled government forbade the construction of new Churches, the wearing of clerical and religious attire, public religious processions, and the celebration of the Holy Mysteries [Sacraments]. They also passed laws forbidding Catholic priests to perform marriages, and making it a felony to sacramentally bless a marriage before it was performed civilly. Over 10,000 Catholics were martyred for their Faith during this time, including numerous priests who refused to abandon their congregations. [The picture above is of Mexican soldiers, led by an officer who was a Freemason, martyring a priest for illegally celebrating the Liturgy.]

Your Pastor has many Protestant, Jewish and non-religious friends who are [or were] Freemasons. Most did not even know about the anti-Catholic and anti-Christian basis of Freemasonry. In addition to the Catholic Churches, numerous Orthodox Churches, and Evangelical Protestant Christian communities forbid membership in the Freemasons! If you know any man active in the Freemasons you should bring this reality to their attention and call upon them as faithful Christians to abandon the false religion of Freemasonry.
Fifth Sunday in the Great Fast
St Mary of Egypt
A Prelude to Salvation

The sixth week of the Great Fast has a two-fold designation in our liturgical books. First of all, it marks the end of this fasting season. We also fast during the Great and Holy Week of the Lord’s Passion, but that observance is not part of the Great Fast. The Great Fast has prepared us to celebrate the paschal mystery of Christ’s saving passion, death and resurrection by inviting us to refocus our lives on God in repentance. During the Holy Week our fasting has a different character: it is a way of observing the sorrowful events of this week: the plotting against Christ, His betrayal, passion, death and burial. Between the two fast periods we observe the double feast of Lazarus Saturday and Palm Sunday. This last week of the Great Fast is simultaneously a week of preparation for these feasts. In our liturgical books this week, then, is called the Week of Palms, looking forward to that celebration.

The hymns prescribed to be sung this week in Vespers, Orthros (Matins) and the Presanctified Liturgy reflect both of these themes. On one hand the services include chants focused on the end of the Great Fast such as the final sticheron sung this coming Friday: “Count us worthy of beholding the week of Your Passion, O Lover of Mankind, for we have completed the forty days of the Fast for the profit of our souls. Let us glorify Your mighty deeds, Your ineffable dispensation for our sake, singing with one mind: ‘O Lord, glory to You!’”
Other chants reflect the coming feast, recalling Christ’s triumphal entry into Jerusalem. At Orthros on Monday, for example, we sing: “O faithful, let us prepare to celebrate Palm Sunday, joyfully observing the forefeast from this present day onwards, so that we may be counted worthy to see the life-giving Passion.”

The Death of Lazarus
Even more of this week’s hymnody recalls the raising of Lazarus, whom the Gospel describes as having died four days before Christ raised him. We hear about Lazarus’ illness and death as well as Jesus’ assertion that “This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it” (Jn 11:4).

In the Gospel of John, the raising of Lazarus and Jesus’ triumphal entry into Jerusalem are connected. We read that Jesus called Lazarus from the tomb at some time before His final trip to Jerusalem (see Jn 12:1). Yet the same Gospel points out that: “…the people, who were with Him when He called Lazarus out of his tomb and raised him from the dead, bore witness. For this reason the people also met Him, because they heard that He had done this sign” (Jn 12:17-18).

Jesus’ return to Bethany sparks the triumphal reception which Jesus received to the excitement over the raising of Lazarus.

Our liturgical hymns take up this connection: “The Lord comes, seated upon the colt of a donkey, as it is written. O peoples, make ready to receive Him in awe as the King of all, and to welcome Him with palms as Victor over Death and Hades; for He has raised Lazarus!”

Each day of this week brings us closer to the commemoration of Lazarus’ rising. Thus on Monday we pray: “The door of the forecourt is opened that leads to the raising of Lazarus: for Christ has come to awaken the dead man, as though from sleep, and to overthrow Death by Life.”
At Orthros on Tuesday we sing a similar hymn: “Be glad, Bethany! For Christ shall come to you, performing in you a great and awesome miracle. Binding death with fetters, as God He will raise up Lazarus, who was dead, and who now magnifies the Creator.”

On Wednesday, four days before we celebrate Lazarus’ rising, we remember his death: “Lazarus, the friend of Christ, has died today: he is carried out for burial, and Martha’s companions lament in sorrow for her brother. But Christ comes to him in joy, to show the nations that He is Himself the Life of all.”

This hymn sung on Thursday adds another note for our consideration: “For two days Lazarus has been in the tomb and sees those dead from all generations. He beholds strange and awesome things and a countless multitude held within the powers of Death. Looking at his tomb, his relatives weep bitterly; but Christ is on His way to give life to His friend and to consummate His plan for all mankind. Blessed are You, O Savior: have mercy on us!”

The plan of God is not simply to revive Lazarus, but to deliver the human race – that “countless multitude” – from the power of Death.

The Saturday of Lazarus

The celebration of Lazarus’ rising is based on the Gospel story of that event (Jn 11). The hymns of the feast point to its meaning for us as the Church has understood it:

- The raising of Lazarus was to prepare the disciples – and us – for Jesus’ death and resurrection. “O Lord, in Your desire to assure Your disciples about Your resurrection from the dead, You came to the tomb of Lazarus.”
- The raising of Lazarus also prepared Death for its ultimate defeat. As we pray at compline, “Even before Your crucifixion You made Death tremble before You, O Savior.”
- The raising of Lazarus provides us with an assurance of our own ultimate resurrection. As we say repeatedly on this feast, “You confirmed the future resurrection of all” (troparion) by this event. Lazarus thus became “the prelude of salvation and rebirth” (Vespers) for all believers.

As with Palm Sunday, this feast is popularly celebrated with a focus on children. Many Greeks prepare a Lazarus-shaped bread distributed to the children with fruits and nuts as a feast-day treat. In Cyprus, Lebanon and other parts of the Middle East, children go from house to house singing carols. They reenact the raising of Lazarus for which they are suitably rewarded.

Resuscitation, not Resurrection

Lazarus’ rising is thus an icon of Christ’s resurrection at Pascha and ours at the Last Day. Lazarus, however, was not raised to eternal life at this time. Rather he was brought back to the life of this world. According to St. Epiphanios of Cyprus (367-403), he lived for another thirty years or so. The Gospel asserts that Lazarus was a wanted man; “The chief priests plotted to put Lazarus to death also, because on account of him many of the Jews went away and believed in Jesus” (Jn 12:10-11). He is said to have fled the wrath of Christ’s enemies for Cyprus where he helped Paul and Barnabas establish a church. Eventually he became Bishop of Kition (today’s Larnaka) and died as a martyr in AD 63.

As we complete these forty days of profit to our souls, let us exclaim: “Rejoice, O Bethany, birthplace of Lazarus.” And you, his sisters, Mary and Martha, rejoice as well! For tomorrow, Christ will come and give life to your dead brother by a word. Bitter and insatiable Death will hear His voice; and trembling with fear and groaning bitterly, it will release Lazarus still wrapped in his shroud. The Hebrews, astonished at this miracle, come to meet Him, carrying branches and palms. And the children will rejoice to see the One on whom their fathers look with hate. Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel!
